Texas Volunteer Deputy Registrar Training

Who are Volunteer Deputy Registrars?

- Volunteer Deputy Registrars (VDRs) are individuals who generously give their time and effort to eligible Texans to help them register to vote. These volunteers play a vital role by increasing voter registration participation and ensuring that every eligible citizen has a voice in the electoral process. Their commitment helps build a more engaged and informed community.

What Are the Qualifications?

Qualifications for Becoming a VDR

A Volunteer Deputy Registrar must:

- be 18 years of age or older;
- be a United States citizen; and
- be a Texas resident.

A Volunteer Deputy Registrar must not:

- have been determined to be totally mentally incapacitated or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote;
- have been convicted of failing to deliver a voter registration application to a voter registrar;
- have been convicted of identity theft under Section 32.51 of the Texas Penal Code; or
- have any unresolved felony convictions.

Did you know:

- It is possible for an individual to complete the entire process and become appointed as a VDR in a single day?
- A VDR must meet the requirements to be a qualified voter but is not required to be a registered voter?
- A county voter registrar may not reappoint a past VDR who was terminated due to a final conviction (1) related to delivery of completed registration applications, or (2) relating to performance-based compensation for VDRs?

Are you qualified and interested in becoming a VDR for your county?

Contact your voter registrar for training information.

After completing training and passing an exam, if required, you will be appointed as a VDR.

Your voter registrar will issue you a certificate of appointment and give you a receipt book or voter registration application with a tear off receipt.

Length of Appointment and Termination

Period of Appointment

- There is no designated timeframe for your appointment.
- Once requirements have been completed, you may be appointed by your county voter registrar.
- VDRs can immediately start their duties and begin encouraging and educating eligible residents on how to register to vote.

Expiration of Appointment

- All VDR appointments expire on December 31st of every even-numbered year.
- For example, if a person is appointed as a VDR in May of 2025, and another is appointed in October 2026, both of their appointments will expire on December 31, 2026.

Your appointment MAY be terminated by the voter registrar if it is determined that you have:

- failed to properly review a voter registration application;
- intentionally destroyed or physically altered a voter registration application; or
- engaged in any other activity that conflicts with your responsibilities as a VDR.

Your appointment WILL be terminated by the voter registrar if it is determined that you are:

- convicted of an offense under the law relating to performance-based compensation for voter registration, Section 13.008, Texas Election Code; or
- convicted of an offense under the law relating to a failure to deliver a completed voter registration application to the voter registrar, Section 13.043, Texas Election Code.

becoming a VDR In Multiple Counties

Interested in Becoming a VDR in a Different County?

To become a VDR in more than one county, you must submit a Request for Appointment as a VDR to each county's voter registrar. The voter registrar will then appoint you as a VDR and advise you of any county-specific procedures.

Anyone who has previously taken the VDR examination and received a certificate of appointment in one county is not required to take the examination again in another county.

Once you have been appointed as a VDR in the new county, you may start offering voter registration opportunities to any eligible resident of that county.

Supplies Required

The supplies you'll need before offering your services as a VDR are:

Certificate of Appointment

Texas VDR Guide and any other helpful resources provided by your county voter registrar

A sufficient number of voter registration applications

Receipt book or voter registration applications with a tear off receipt

Blue/black ink pens

NOTE: All election materials issued to a volunteer deputy registrar, including the Certificate of Appointment, receipt books, receipts, applications and other forms in the volunteer deputy registrar's possession, must be returned or accounted for upon termination of appointment, not later than the second day after the volunteer deputy registrar receives the termination notice.

Where to Obtain VDR Voter Registration Applications

Requesting Voter Registration Applications From Your County

- VDRs can easily request voter registration applications from their counties by contacting their local voter registrar's office.
- You can find your specific voter registrar's contact information listed by county on the Secretary of State's website, <https://www.sos.state.tx.us/elections/voter/county.shtml>
- After finding your county's contact information, you can call, email, or go in-person to request applications.
- Once you receive the voter registration applications, make sure you have received an equal amount of receipts.

Printing Voter Registration Applications From the SOS Website

- If your county voter registrar does not have enough applications to provide to you, you may print blank applications for VDRs from the Secretary of State's website.
- If you receive generic applications containing the Secretary of State's return address (rather than your county voter registrar's address), you can distribute these to anyone residing in any county; however, you can only accept applications from those residing in the county in which you were appointed.
- To find printable voter registration applications please visit:

Roles of a Volunteer Deputy Registrar

Roles of a Volunteer Deputy Registrar

VDRs bring voter registration opportunities directly to communities, making it easier for individuals to participate in elections. A VDR's role is not limited to expanding voter access. VDRs also help applicants have a voice which impacts local, state, and national issues.

Distribute voter registration applications to any eligible residents of the county.

Accept all applications from any resident of the county who meets the eligibility requirements.

Assist any applicant if they are not able to complete the application independently.

Review the application for completeness while the applicant is still present to make sure the application is complete.

While Distributing Voter Registration Applications

- Offer Equal Access – Registration opportunities should be extended to all eligible citizens of the county, ensuring inclusivity and accessibility.
- Remember Your Goal – As a VDR, it is your purpose to boost voter registration participation in Texas. By providing applications to as many eligible county residents as possible, you will not only aid in the increase of voter registration participation, but in the overall voter turnout of future elections.

While Distributing Voter Registration Applications to College Students

- Remember that college students may have moved counties for school.
- Remind the students they have the option of either registering at the address where they currently reside OR at their hometown address if they do not currently reside there during the school year.
- They can only register at one of these addresses.

Accepting Applications

You may accept a voter registration application from any resident of the county who:

- is a citizen of the United States;
- is at least 17 years and 10 months old, and will be 18 years of age by Election Day;
- has not been determined by a final judgment of a court exercising probate jurisdiction to be totally mentally incapacitated or partially mentally incapacitated without the right to vote and;
- has not been finally convicted of a felony, or if a felon, must have completed all of the punishment, including any term of incarceration, parole, supervision, or period of probation, or must have been pardoned or otherwise released from the resulting disability to vote.

NOTE: Do not attempt to determine if a person is legally allowed to vote. It is the voter registrar's responsibility to determine if the person is or is not eligible.

Assisting Applicants

If someone is having trouble:

- filling out the application, you can assist them in any way necessary to ensure all eligible residents have equal opportunity to register to vote; or
- understanding the application, you can explain what information is needed by the applicant in order for it to be accepted.

If an applicant cannot:

- sign their name on the application, they may make a mark on the signature line. You can then print the name of the applicant beside the mark. Make sure to sign and print your name, and provide your residence address as the witness;
- make a mark, please make note of this on the application and print the applicant's name. Make sure to sign and print your name, and provide your residence address as the witness.

You may allow:

- another registered voter to fill out an application for their spouse, parent or child. That person must sign the application as "agent" and state the relationship to the applicant on the application.
- the agent to sign the applicant's application. That person must sign the application as "agent" and state the relationship to the applicant on the application.

Reviewing Section 4

The address provided must clearly indicate where the applicant resides.

This information is important because it determines the applicant's voting precinct and the races on which they are eligible to vote.

An incorrect residence address will not only cause complications when the voter registrar is processing the application, but it could also result in an incorrect voting precinct or polling location.
